

The Security Council,

PP1-Recalling and reaffirming its resolution 2797 (2025) on Western Sahara,

PP2-Noting the support of a growing number of Member States for Morocco's proposal of autonomy under Moroccan sovereignty in Western Sahara,

PP3-Expressing its full support for the Secretary-General and his Personal Envoy, Staffan de Mistura, and welcoming the efforts of the Personal Envoy and of the United States in facilitating three rounds of direct negotiations held in Washington and Madrid between Morocco, the Frente POLISARIO, Algeria, and Mauritania, taking as basis Morocco's Autonomy Proposal, with a view to achieving a just, lasting and mutually acceptable resolution to the dispute, consistent with the principles and purposes of the UN Charter,

PP4-Welcoming the expansion and update of the Autonomy Proposal presented by Morocco to the facilitators and negotiating parties, which served as the basis for substantive discussions during the three rounds,

PP5-Welcoming President Trump's leadership on conflict resolution in Western Sahara and taking note of his call for the parties to engage without delay, using Morocco's Autonomy Proposal as the only framework to negotiate a mutually acceptable solution,

PP6-Affirming that genuine autonomy under Moroccan sovereignty is the most feasible solution, and encouraging the efforts of the Secretary-General and his Personal Envoy to achieve a just, lasting and mutually agreed solution to the question of Western Sahara that meaningfully provides for self-determination, in accordance with the principles and purposes of the UN Charter,

PP7-Underlining the importance of a clear, explicit and unconditional commitment by the parties to cease hostilities, respect the ceasefire and to avoid any act that jeopardizes the political process, and condemning the attack of 5 May 2026 on the town of Smara,

PP8-Taking note of the strategic review of the Mission conducted pursuant to resolution 2797 (2025),

PP9-Noting with deep concern the protracted nature of the displacement and the deteriorating humanitarian conditions in the Tindouf refugee camps, emphasizing that this situation cannot responsibly be sustained, and stressing that continued international funding should capacitate individual, voluntary, durable solutions, and that such solutions should be implemented in accordance with international law and under the supervision of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General of 1 October 2026,

- 1. Decides to extend the mandate of the United Nations Mission for the Referendum in Western Sahara (MINURSO) until 31 October 2027 and further decides that as of 1 November 2026 the Mission shall be renamed the United Nations Mission in Western Sahara (MINUSO);*
- 2. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the Council, no later than 30 January 2027, detailed proposals for the structure, and the staffing, including a reduction of authorized uniformed personnel and the closure and/or consolidation of team sites, of the Mission, including arrangements for reporting, ceasefire monitoring, mine action, support to the political process, and the re-use of existing mission support structures;*
- 3. Intends to decide on the future of the Mission, including the transformation of its mandate, in light of the Secretary-General's proposals and of progress in the political process;*
- 4. Recognizes the importance of continuity of senior leadership and institutional knowledge;*
- 5. Expresses its full support for the Secretary-General, his Personal Envoy, and the United States as facilitators in conducting three rounds of discussions that had as basis Morocco's expanded and updated Autonomy*

Proposal, which would be the only basis for continuing these discussions, and affirms the continuing lead role of the United Nations in the political process;

6. Requests the Personal Envoy to consult a broad range of Sahrawi constituencies and interlocutors, including those outside the negotiating parties, in the Territory, in the refugee camps, and in the diaspora, and to reflect those consultations in the Secretary-General's reporting;
7. Calls upon the parties to cooperate fully with the facilitators, to engage actively and constructively using Morocco's Autonomy Proposal as the only basis for negotiation, and to put forward responses on the basis of the Autonomy Proposal;
8. Reemphasizes its commitment to a just, lasting and mutually acceptable political solution, in accordance with the principles and purposes of the UN Charter, including the principle of self-determination, and considers that genuine autonomy under Moroccan sovereignty is the most feasible solution to the question of Western Sahara;
9. Requests the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to complete the registration of the refugee population in the Tindouf area within six months, in accordance with international law, in particular international refugee law, and in conformity with UNHCR practice and standards and without interference from any entity and calls upon all concerned to allow and facilitate unimpeded access and freedom of movement for that purpose and for any assessment of durable solutions;
10. Invites Member States to support these negotiations and the facilitation efforts;
11. Requests the Secretary-General to brief the Council regularly during the mandate period;
12. Decides to remain seized of the matter.
